The bisector of the angle of the opposite coastal fronts became the bearing of the second segment (B-C) of the single maritime boundary determined by the Chamber.