Re Arctic Sunrise Arbitration – Further Information on the Updated Pleading on Reparation

Dear Ms. Grimmer,

Following the submission by the Kingdom of the Netherlands of its Updated Pleading on Reparation, Greenpeace has provided relevant information concerning a few objects belonging to the Arctic Sunrise that have been restituted by the Russian Federation. This information was not available when the Updated Pleading on Reparation and its Annexes were submitted and has not been included in the claim for compensation. The letter identifying the objects is attached to this letter. The restituted objects represent a value of EUR 7,646.

With apologies for the inconveniences this may cause, I would respectfully request the Tribunal to include this information in the present procedure and lower the relevant amounts of damage accordingly. The total amount of damage now amounts to EUR 8,035,343, the amount of damage to the Arctic Sunrise amounts to EUR 1,824,121 and the amount of damage under the heading of Restitution/replacement of objects amounts to EUR 293,887.

To the best of our knowledge, with this addition, the overview related to the objects restituted by the Russian Federation as it stands today is complete.

Yours sincerely,

René Lefeber
Co-Agent for the Kingdom of the Netherlands
