1. Procedural Background

1.1

[REDACTED]

2. The Tribunal's Directions

2.1 Paragraph 3.9 of Procedural Order No. 1 provides:

To avoid future conflicts of interest after the appointment of members of the Tribunal, any proposed additions to or changes in the representatives of the Parties shall be communicated to the Tribunal and shall only take effect if the Tribunal does not object for reasons of conflict of interest.

2.2 In accordance with Paragraph 3.9 of Procedural Order No. 1, the Tribunal hereby confirms that it does not object to the appointment of the Russian Federation's counsel. Each member of the Tribunal confirms that he remains impartial and independent of the Parties, and that he has disclosed, to the best of his knowledge, all circumstances likely to give rise to justifiable doubts as to his impartiality or independence and that he will promptly disclose any such circumstances that may arise in the future.

2.3 Accordingly, as of today the Russian Federation is represented in these proceedings by Houthoff Coöperatief U.A and attorneys of Ivanyan & Partners. As requested by the Respondent, any future correspondence in this matter addressed to it shall be sent to the following addresses:

- 2.4 Paragraph 1 of Procedural Order No. 1 is amended accordingly.
- 2.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties are invited to note that, in accordance with Paragraph 9.2 of Procedural Order No. 1 and Paragraphs 3.6 and 3.8 of the Rules of Procedure, ordinary correspondence between the Tribunal and the Parties, as well as submissions concerning procedural or non-substantive matters, shall henceforth be sent by e-mail only, whereas written pleadings and other formal submissions, and written documentary and testimonial evidence, shall be sent by both e-mail and courier. As previously noted, all communications (whether by e-mail or courier) for the attention of the Tribunal should be sent to the PCA with a copy to the other Party, following which the PCA will promptly transmit such communications to the members of the Tribunal.
