1 Introduction

- 1.1 Pursuant to the agreement of the Parties, the arbitration The Renco Group, Inc. v. Republic of Peru, PCA Case No. 2019-46 (the “Treaty Case”) is being coordinated with this arbitration (the “Contract Case”).
- 1.2 On 22 June 2022, the Tribunal informed the Parties that it would be unable to meet the deadline set forth in the procedural calendar for its decisions on document production requests. It would therefore consult with the Parties regarding any adjustment to the procedural calendars.
- 1.3 By letter dated 27 June 2022, the Claimants informed the Tribunal that they were in the process of retaining new external counsel and would, consequently, request a revision of the procedural calendars for both cases.
- 1.4 By letter dated 30 June 2022, the Tribunal noted that it envisaged consulting with the Parties regarding potential adjustments to the procedural calendars once it had rendered its decision on document production. Nevertheless, it invited the Claimants to submit their proposals on adjustments and the Respondents to submit any comments on these proposals.
- 1.5 By letter dated 30 June 2022, the Respondents stated that they would collaborate in good faith with the Claimants and were amenable to reasonable adjustments to the procedural calendars. They also proposed that the Tribunal direct the Claimants to advise of the anticipated time frame for them to retain new counsel.
- 1.6 By letter dated 6 July 2022, the Claimants informed the Tribunal that they expected to have new counsel in place by the end of July or early August.
- 1.7 By letter dated 2 August 2022, the Respondents requested an update from the Claimants regarding their new external counsel.
- 1.8 By e-mail of 4 August 2022, the Claimants advised that they expected to have new counsel engaged by the end of the week of 8 August 2022.
- 1.9 By letter dated 11 August 2022, the Claimants informed the Tribunal that they had retained the law firm Schiffer Hicks Johnson PLLC as new external counsel and that they would contact the Respondents to discuss a revised procedural calendar.
- 1.10 On 25 August 2022, the Tribunal issued the Procedural Order No. 7 in the Treaty Case and Procedural Order No. 8 in the Contract Case, containing its decisions on document production.
- 1.11 By letter dated 9 September 2022, the Respondents proposed that the Parties forgo further written submissions and present their final case at the hearings scheduled for 6-17 November 2023 or, in the alternative, adopt a procedural calendar that allowed those hearing dates to be maintained.
- 1.12 By letter dated 12 September 2022, the Claimants asserted that neither of the Respondents proposals was acceptable and proposed a new procedural calendar leading to a hearing in early 2024.
- 1.13 By letter dated 22 September 2022, in order to ascertain whether a short postponement of the hearing was feasible under the circumstances, the Tribunal requested the Parties to indicate their availability for all two-week periods from December 2023 to April 2024.

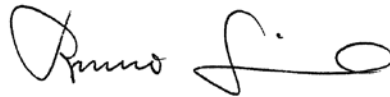

- 1.14 By letter dated 23 September 2022, the Claimants indicated their availability between December 2023 and April 2024.
- 1.15 By letter dated 28 September 2022, the Respondents indicated their availability between December 2023 and April 2024. The Respondents reaffirmed their position that the scheduled hearing dates should not change and presented a new proposal that would maintain the current hearing dates.
- 1.16 By e-mail of 4 October 2022, the Claimants asked for a short delay in the Tribunal's consideration of the timetable on account of an issue that they might raise and could impact the schedule of the proceedings.
- 1.17 By letter dated 10 October 2022, the Claimants submitted that, under the Stock Transfer Agreement executed on 23 October 1997 (the "STA"), the Respondents' contention that the standards and practices of Doe Run Peru were less protective of the environment and public health than those that were applied by Centromín and their questioning of the allocation of responsibility between Centromín and Doe Run Peru for indemnity must be submitted to an independent expert for an initial determination. The Claimants thus requested the Tribunal to include space in the procedural calendar for an independent expert determination and allocation. The Claimants also indicated that they were agreeable to the Tribunal's selection of the independent expert if the parties could not agree.
- 1.18 By letter dated 18 October 2022, the Respondents argued that, given the Claimants' admission that the expert procedure is mandatory under the STA, the Tribunal should dismiss the Contract Case with prejudice. In the alternative, the Respondents requested that the Tribunal bifurcate the proceedings and consider all jurisdictional and admissibility objections in a preliminary phase of the Contract Case.
- 1.19 By letter dated 28 October 2022, the Claimants withdrew their request to include an expert determination procedure in the timetable. The Claimants argued that, upon further review, an expert procedure is not required and, even if it were, the Respondents had waived their right to invoke that procedure. The Claimants also requested the opportunity to address Respondents' letter in their upcoming Reply and Response on Jurisdiction in the event that the Tribunal admitted a new jurisdictional objection in the Contract Case.
- 1.20 By letter dated 4 November 2022, the Respondents stated that their position remained unaltered. The Respondents also asserted that they had not waived any jurisdictional objections regarding the STA's requirement of an expert procedure and that the Claimants' substantive arguments concerning such procedure were incorrect and contradicted the Claimants' own arguments in Renco I.

2 Decision and Procedural Calendar

- 2.1 Having considered the views expressed by the Parties in their respective communications and taking note that the Claimants' withdrawal of their request to include an independent expert determination and allocation phase in the Procedural Calendar, the Tribunal hereby dismisses the Respondents' request for summary dismissal of the Contract Case and for the bifurcation of the proceedings. The Tribunal considers that the Respondent has not established a sufficient procedural or factual basis for summary dismissal of the Contract Case at this stage. Nor does the Tribunal consider the circumstances to have changed to such a degree that warrants the reconsideration of its decision not to bifurcate the proceedings as set forth in Procedural Order No. 3 in the Contract Case.

- 2.2 Having further considered the Parties' views regarding the adjustments to be made to the procedural calendar, and having ascertained that a short postponement of the hearing is feasible for all participants, the Tribunal decides to adopt the procedural calendar proposed by the Claimants. Accordingly, the Tribunal hereby establishes a revised procedural calendar as set forth in Annex 1 to this Procedural Order and fixes the hearing to take place from Tuesday, 5 March 2024 to Friday, 15 March 2024.
- 2.3 Before or on the date of the deadline for any written submission, the Party in question shall send the submission to the Tribunal, PCA, and opposing counsel, by e-mail or secure file-sharing platform, in accordance with the Terms of Appointment and Procedural Order No. 1.

So ordered by the Tribunal.
