Publication of the Parties’ Written Pleadings

In accordance with Article 11(2) of the Supplementary Rules of Procedure, the Parties’ written pleadings will be published on the PCA Case Repository (<https://pca-cpa.org/en/cases/370/>) on 16 March 2026.

Public Access and Live Webcast of the Hearing

In accordance with the agreement of the Parties and pursuant to Article 11(2) of the Supplementary Rules of Procedure, the hearing will be open to the public.

During the hearing, members of the public will be able to follow the hearing in the following ways:

Attendance by Members of the Diplomatic Corps

Interested members of the diplomatic corps are welcome to follow the hearing in the Administrative Council Chamber.

The PCA requests members of the diplomatic corps who plan to attend the hearing to notify it accordingly by 16 March 2026, by e-mail to 2025-45-registration@pca-cpa.org. Confirmation of attendance will be communicated by e-mail on 17 March 2026.

Attendance by Representatives of the Press

Representatives of the press may follow the hearing in a separate viewing room on the Peace Palace premises via live-stream. Representatives of the press are advised that there will be no possibility to connect to the video and audio stream in the viewing room.

On the first day of the hearing, press photographers and camera operators will be permitted in the hearing room before the hearing begins. No photography will be permitted in the hearing room once the hearing has begun, and photographers and camera operators will be asked to leave the hearing room prior to this. In addition, a selection of high-resolution pictures taken by a professional photographer on the PCA's behalf will be made available on the PCA Case Repository (<https://pca-cpa.org/en/cases/370/>). These photographs may be freely downloaded and reproduced, with appropriate credit.

Interested representatives of the press are required to register by 16 March 2026, by e-mail to 2025-45-registration@pca-cpa.org, enclosing the accreditation form attached to the present Press Release. Should the number of registrants exceed the number of available seats, the PCA will allocate seats on a first-come-first-served basis. Confirmation of attendance will be communicated by e-mail on 17 March 2026. Only those registrants who have received advance confirmation from the PCA will be granted access to the Peace Palace.

Representatives of the press are kindly asked to arrive at the Peace Palace no later than 9:00 on each day of the hearing, to allow the requisite security procedures to be completed. They are further requested to leave the Peace Palace premises by 13:30 on 18 and 19 March 2026, and by 15:30 on 20 March 2026.

Representatives of parties involved in PCA proceedings occasionally agree to provide interviews on the Peace Palace premises after sittings. Please note that the PCA does not facilitate or arrange such interview requests. Journalists are kindly asked to conduct such interviews on the entrance steps to the Palace or in the entry hall. It also remains open to the press to conduct any further interviews outside the Peace Palace gates.

Attendance by Members of the General Public

Members of the general public wishing to follow the hearing must notify the PCA accordingly by 16 March 2026, by e-mail to 2025-45-registration@pca-cpa.org. Confirmation of attendance will be communicated by e-mail on 17 March 2026. Only those members of the general public who have received advance confirmation from the PCA will be granted access to the Peace Palace.

Upon prior registration and confirmation, members of the general public will be able to follow the hearing from the Administrative Council Chamber. Any seats available for the general public will be allocated in order of registration, on a first-come-first-served basis.

Those members of the general public who have received confirmation from the PCA are kindly asked to arrive at the Peace Palace no later than 9:00 on each day of the hearing, to allow the requisite security procedures to be completed. They are further requested to leave the Peace Palace premises as soon as the hearing has concluded for the day.

Live-streaming on the Internet

In addition to the above arrangements, the hearing will be transmitted to the public via live-stream. The live-stream may be accessed using the following link.

Publication of recordings and hearing transcripts

Following the conclusion of the hearing, a recording of the webcast will be made available on the PCA Case Repository (<https://pca-cpa.org/en/cases/370/>).

Hearing transcripts will likewise be published on the PCA Case Repository, in accordance with a procedure to be established by the Tribunal in due course.

Parking

No parking is allowed on the Peace Palace grounds, and all vehicles should be parked in the neighbouring streets.

Background to the Dispute

The arbitral proceedings were instituted on 24 November 2025 when the Republic of Rwanda served on the United Kingdom a Notice of Arbitration pursuant to Article 22 of the Asylum Partnership Agreement and Article 3 of the PCA Arbitration Rules 2012. The Notice of Arbitration refers to the “[United Kingdom]’s compliance with certain obligations under the [Asylum Partnership Agreement]”.

The three-member Tribunal is chaired by H.E. Judge Peter Tomka (a national of the Slovak Republic). The other members are Professor Dr. Mohamed Abdel Wahab (a national of Egypt) and Judge Joan Donoghue (a national of the United States of America). The PCA acts as Registry for the proceedings.

Further information about the proceedings is available on the PCA Case Repository (<https://pca-cpa.org/en/cases/370/>). The PCA, following consultation with the Parties, will issue periodic press releases concerning the status of the proceedings. Any orders and awards of the Tribunal will also be made publicly available on the PCA Case Repository, subject to any redactions of confidential information authorised by the Tribunal.
